

THE REPORT WAS

MANUFACTURED BY A REPORTER

Commander Wainwright Disclaims Any Knowledge of One Published, and

The Result of the Inquiry Into the Parts Taken by Different Vessels in Destruction of Cervera's Fleet Not Yet Made Public.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 12.—The publication of what purported to be the report of the Wainwright board on the parts taken by the respective vessels of the United States fleet in the destruction of Cervera's squadron, caused considerable commotion in the Navy Department. Review of the fact that the report had reached Washington at the date of its publication, an inquiry was set on foot by the Department to ascertain first, whether the publications were accurate, and second, who was responsible for the dissemination. In the publication of an official report before it had reached the Navy Department.

DISCLAIMS ANY KNOWLEDGE.

Commander Wainwright, the head of the board, arrived in Washington yesterday and very promptly disclaimed any knowledge of the publication, stating that he had left instructions that the report was to be transmitted to the commander of the fleet, Admiral Sampson, who appointed the board, chosen by the Commodore in answer to an inquiry by the Department, returned the following dispatch directed to Captain Crowninshield, chief of the Navigation Bureau:

Brooklyn, N. Y., Oct. 12.

Navy Department, Washington:

"I saw your report of the night ward first to-night. Articles in papers to-day manufactured by a reporter entire; no word of resemblance between the two." (Signed) PHILIP H. PHILLIPS.

NOT TRANSMITTED.

Commodore Philip has not yet transmitted the report to the Department, but something is known of its general character and this understanding tends to show misconception of the functions of this board. Admiral Sampson had appointed the board, chosen the navigators of vessels that were engaged in the battle of July 3d. He made but one exception, in the case of his own flagship, the New York, refusing to nominate a member. The Commodore, however, had the Gloucester, the Texas, Iowa and Indiana, were members of the board, but the New York and no representative.

The board was directed to ascertain and report the position of the vessels engaged in the action, and to give the first instruction in any point, and its report, outside of the repetition of the instructions under which it was operating, comprises very little more than a chart on which the positions of the vessels are indicated, and a list of the first thing reported by the board, chosen the navigators of vessels that were engaged in the battle of July 3d. He made but one exception, in the case of his own flagship, the New York, refusing to nominate a member. The Commodore, however, had the Gloucester, the Texas, Iowa and Indiana, were members of the board, but the New York and no representative.

The board was directed to ascertain and report the position of the vessels engaged in the action, and to give the first instruction in any point, and its report, outside of the repetition of the instructions under which it was operating, comprises very little more than a chart on which the positions of the vessels are indicated, and a list of the first thing reported by the board, chosen the navigators of vessels that were engaged in the battle of July 3d. He made but one exception, in the case of his own flagship, the New York, refusing to nominate a member. The Commodore, however, had the Gloucester, the Texas, Iowa and Indiana, were members of the board, but the New York and no representative.

HOT TIMES IN HONOLULU.

Two Lieutenants Declare Martial Law and Arrest Everybody in Sight.

HONOLULU, October 12.—(By wire.) San Francisco, Oct. 12.—(By wire.) This community treated last night to a small ring of terror, which, nevertheless, had its humorous side. Martial law was declared by two drunken lieutenants.

Yesterday part of the troops were paid by a large number received permission to leave camp to spend their money. It was the first chance many of them had to spend money since they came here, but for fear they could not stand prosperity a provost guard of cavalry and infantry was mounted. The provost guard a soldier of the provost guard drank. That is how there came to be a reign of terror.

This guard was under command of Lieutenant Wheelock, of the First New York Volunteer Infantry. The first thing the military duty he had had to do since he came here. He got his friend, Lieutenant Merriam, son of Major General Merriam, and aide to Brigadier General King, to aid him. The two drank together. Merriam had no military duties in greatly enlarged right.

About 11 P. M. they decided they were at military administrators. They declared martial law. They gave orders to the guard under them to arrest everybody in sight. The provost guard but were on leave were halted and ordered to join the guard, citizens were held up and marched up and down the street or were chased to places of safety.

Merriam and Wheelock, on a box near the waterfront were charged on by one of the mounted officers. To save themselves he ran aboard a steamer at the wharf at the other got into the box he had been sitting on. Merriam was on the plank-plank of a steamer to keep the man aboard, and ordered another soldier to sit on the plank to keep the man in it.

Wheelock engaged in a brawl with the sailors, and a merchant ship. He drove them clear down to the docks and had a couple of his men chase two river-inland steamer captains to the boxes on the wharf. The customs officer is also made to scramble for safety. Quite a crowd collected when Wheelock walked the streets cleared and then the walk. Fire flashed from beneath the toes of the horses as the soldiers charged under the awnings. The natives, who should have stopped the police in the direction of the police station and there he was turned loose. Merriam kept on saying he must be obeyed and there must be no foolishness.

It was 1 o'clock in the morning, a full moon and a half after the drunken frolic began, before General King was alerted. He sent down his adjutant, to put an end to the trouble. Just as martial law" ended Captain Robert Parker, of the Hawaiian police, came up. He gave orders in the native language to arrest anybody making disturbance. Merriam is ordinarily a young fellow. He is in the artillery. Scores of citizens who were sent home

Kaufmann & Co.

GRAND AUTUMN SALE

Tailor-made Suits, Dress Skirts, Separate Jackets, Dressing Sacks and House-Wrappers. The greatest assortment of high-grade goods shown in Richmond. Correct in every detail of style; made from the best and handsomest of fabrics, and what is more—the most REASONABLE PRICES.

Double-Breasted Cheviot Suits, in browns and blues, jacket lapped seams and silk lined, skirt percaleine lined and velvet bound. $6.95

Covert Cloth Suits, very nobly, fly-front jacket, taffeta silk lined, new cut skirt; also, Black and Navy Cheviot Suits, made in the very newest style by the best makers. $10.00

Handsome Imported Covert Cloth Suits, very swell, jacket cut in the new round rock effect, half tight-fitting Suits, trimmed in braid, with jacket silk lined. $12.00

Beautiful Tailor-Made Suits, of finest imported materials, new in checks, excellently tailored, and cut in the very latest Parisian style, satin-lined jacket, skirt lined with extra fine quality percaleine and braid bound. $18.50

Full Silk-Lined Suits of Finest Imported Venetian Cloth, jacket and skirt finished with strapped seams; just such a garment as you would desire in any order. $25.00

House Wrappers,

79c to $5.95.

300 PERCALE WRAPPERS, extra well made, all sizes from 32 to 42, round yoke effect, finished with ruffles and braid, material and trimmings in braid. Special to-day and to-morrow. 79c

Ladies' Wrappers, in newest and prettiest designs, $1.25 values. 88c

Ladies' Flannelette Wrappers, with round yoke, finished with ruffles and braid. 98c

House Wrappers, in assorted colors, prettiest designs made, pointed yoke back and front, trimmed with ruffle and two rows of braid. $1.38

Flannelette Wrappers, best patterns, beautifully made. $1.50

Parisian Millinery Beauty

In Trimmed Hats and Bonnets.

Our exhibit of Paris and London Millinery surpasses in splendor, variety, and numbers all other stores combined.

Special on Sale To-day:

Hundreds of becoming productions from our own work-rooms, creations from imported models, at $2, $3.75, $4, $4.50, $5.

Ladies' Walking Hats.

London and Paris Fur Felt Walking Hats, Round Hats, Turbans and Cycling Hats, at prices ranging up from 50c

See These:

100 Ladies' Rough Rider Hats, English wool felt. Special to-day and to-morrow, each 50c

The latest hat, seen in the city of Children's Tam O'Shanter and Caps and Nobby School Hats, at prices up from 25c

Kaufmann & Company,

FOURTH AND BROAD.

by him actually believed martial law had been proclaimed.

General King was much grieved over the escape of the young lieutenants, but he laid the blame on Wheelock because Wheelock was on duty. He said of Merriman was drunk or disorderly.

Wheelock said there would be no court martial, as no complaint had been made. He had forwarded a report to Washington.

MASS FOR SOLDIERS' SOULS.

Impressive Ceremonies Held by American Chaplains in Far Off Manila.

The New York Herald publishes the following special:

MANILA, Sept. 6.—VIA SAN FRANCISCO, CAL., Oct. 12.—Solemn mass was celebrated in the church of San Miguel, at the Palace of Manila, for the souls of members of the First California regiment who laid down their lives for their country in this far off land. The Rev. Father Deherer, General Merritt's chaplain, and him, in his sermon, said that although the mass was for the souls of the dead, it was a most touching sermon was preached by the Rev. Father McKinnon, chaplain of the regiment.

It was a most impressive scene, the quaint old interior reminiscent in all its parts of the appeal of the Spanish missionaries to the senses of the natives. The earnest faces of the American soldiers in their brown fatigue uniforms, the solemn chanting of the priest, the strong, clear tones of the native laids of whom Father McKinnon was a most touching sermon was preached by the Rev. Father McKinnon, chaplain of the regiment.

It was a most impressive scene, the quaint old interior reminiscent in all its parts of the appeal of the Spanish missionaries to the senses of the natives. The earnest faces of the American soldiers in their brown fatigue uniforms, the solemn chanting of the priest, the strong, clear tones of the native laids of whom Father McKinnon was a most touching sermon was preached by the Rev. Father McKinnon, chaplain of the regiment.

It was a most impressive scene, the quaint old interior reminiscent in all its parts of the appeal of the Spanish missionaries to the senses of the natives. The earnest faces of the American soldiers in their brown fatigue uniforms, the solemn chanting of the priest, the strong, clear tones of the native laids of whom Father McKinnon was a most touching sermon was preached by the Rev. Father McKinnon, chaplain of the regiment.

It was a most impressive scene, the quaint old interior reminiscent in all its parts of the appeal of the Spanish missionaries to the senses of the natives. The earnest faces of the American soldiers in their brown fatigue uniforms, the solemn chanting of the priest, the strong, clear tones of the native laids of whom Father McKinnon was a most touching sermon was preached by the Rev. Father McKinnon, chaplain of the regiment.

It was a most impressive scene, the quaint old interior reminiscent in all its parts of the appeal of the Spanish missionaries to the senses of the natives. The earnest faces of the American soldiers in their brown fatigue uniforms, the solemn chanting of the priest, the strong, clear tones of the native laids of whom Father McKinnon was a most touching sermon was preached by the Rev. Father McKinnon, chaplain of the regiment.

It was a most impressive scene, the quaint old interior reminiscent in all its parts of the appeal of the Spanish missionaries to the senses of the natives. The earnest faces of the American soldiers in their brown fatigue uniforms, the solemn chanting of the priest, the strong, clear tones of the native laids of whom Father McKinnon was a most touching sermon was preached by the Rev. Father McKinnon, chaplain of the regiment.

It was a most impressive scene, the quaint old interior reminiscent in all its parts of the appeal of the Spanish missionaries to the senses of the natives. The earnest faces of the American soldiers in their brown fatigue uniforms, the solemn chanting of the priest, the strong, clear tones of the native laids of whom Father McKinnon was a most touching sermon was preached by the Rev. Father McKinnon, chaplain of the regiment.

It was a most impressive scene, the quaint old interior reminiscent in all its parts of the appeal of the Spanish missionaries to the senses of the natives. The earnest faces of the American soldiers in their brown fatigue uniforms, the solemn chanting of the priest, the strong, clear tones of the native laids of whom Father McKinnon was a most touching sermon was preached by the Rev. Father McKinnon, chaplain of the regiment.

It was a most impressive scene, the quaint old interior reminiscent in all its parts of the appeal of the Spanish missionaries to the senses of the natives. The earnest faces of the American soldiers in their brown fatigue uniforms, the solemn chanting of the priest, the strong, clear tones of the native laids of whom Father McKinnon was a most touching sermon was preached by the Rev. Father McKinnon, chaplain of the regiment.

It was a most impressive scene, the quaint old interior reminiscent in all its parts of the appeal of the Spanish missionaries to the senses of the natives. The earnest faces of the American soldiers in their brown fatigue uniforms, the solemn chanting of the priest, the strong, clear tones of the native laids of whom Father McKinnon was a most touching sermon was preached by the Rev. Father McKinnon, chaplain of the regiment.

It was a most impressive scene, the quaint old interior reminiscent in all its parts of the appeal of the Spanish missionaries to the senses of the natives. The earnest faces of the American soldiers in their brown fatigue uniforms, the solemn chanting of the priest, the strong, clear tones of the native laids of whom Father McKinnon was a most touching sermon was preached by the Rev. Father McKinnon, chaplain of the regiment.

It was a most impressive scene, the quaint old interior reminiscent in all its parts of the appeal of the Spanish missionaries to the senses of the natives. The earnest faces of the American soldiers in their brown fatigue uniforms, the solemn chanting of the priest, the strong, clear tones of the native laids of whom Father McKinnon was a most touching sermon was preached by the Rev. Father McKinnon, chaplain of the regiment.

It was a most impressive scene, the quaint old interior reminiscent in all its parts of the appeal of the Spanish missionaries to the senses of the natives. The earnest faces of the American soldiers in their brown fatigue uniforms, the solemn chanting of the priest, the strong, clear tones of the native laids of whom Father McKinnon was a most touching sermon was preached by the Rev. Father McKinnon, chaplain of the regiment.

It was a most impressive scene, the quaint old interior reminiscent in all its parts of the appeal of the Spanish missionaries to the senses of the natives. The earnest faces of the American soldiers in their brown fatigue uniforms, the solemn chanting of the priest, the strong, clear tones of the native laids of whom Father McKinnon was a most touching sermon was preached by the Rev. Father McKinnon, chaplain of the regiment.

It was a most impressive scene, the quaint old interior reminiscent in all its parts of the appeal of the Spanish missionaries to the senses of the natives. The earnest faces of the American soldiers in their brown fatigue uniforms, the solemn chanting of the priest, the strong, clear tones of the native laids of whom Father McKinnon was a most touching sermon was preached by the Rev. Father McKinnon, chaplain of the regiment.

It was a most impressive scene, the quaint old interior reminiscent in all its parts of the appeal of the Spanish missionaries to the senses of the natives. The earnest faces of the American soldiers in their brown fatigue uniforms, the solemn chanting of the priest, the strong, clear tones of the native laids of whom Father McKinnon was a most touching sermon was preached by the Rev. Father McKinnon, chaplain of the regiment.

It was a most impressive scene, the quaint old interior reminiscent in all its parts of the appeal of the Spanish missionaries to the senses of the natives. The earnest faces of the American soldiers in their brown fatigue uniforms, the solemn chanting of the priest, the strong, clear tones of the native laids of whom Father McKinnon was a most touching sermon was preached by the Rev. Father McKinnon, chaplain of the regiment.

It was a most impressive scene, the quaint old interior reminiscent in all its parts of the appeal of the Spanish missionaries to the senses of the natives. The earnest faces of the American soldiers in their brown fatigue uniforms, the solemn chanting of the priest, the strong, clear tones of the native laids of whom Father McKinnon was a most touching sermon was preached by the Rev. Father McKinnon, chaplain of the regiment.

It was a most impressive scene, the quaint old interior reminiscent in all its parts of the appeal of the Spanish missionaries to the senses of the natives. The earnest faces of the American soldiers in their brown fatigue uniforms, the solemn chanting of the priest, the strong, clear tones of the native laids of whom Father McKinnon was a most touching sermon was preached by the Rev. Father McKinnon, chaplain of the regiment.

It was a most impressive scene, the quaint old interior reminiscent in all its parts of the appeal of the Spanish missionaries to the senses of the natives. The earnest faces of the American soldiers in their brown fatigue uniforms, the solemn chanting of the priest, the strong, clear tones of the native laids of whom Father McKinnon was a most touching sermon was preached by the Rev. Father McKinnon, chaplain of the regiment.

It was a most impressive scene, the quaint old interior reminiscent in all its parts of the appeal of the Spanish missionaries to the senses of the natives. The earnest faces of the American soldiers in their brown fatigue uniforms, the solemn chanting of the priest, the strong, clear tones of the native laids of whom Father McKinnon was a most touching sermon was preached by the Rev. Father McKinnon, chaplain of the regiment.

It was a most impressive scene, the quaint old interior reminiscent in all its parts of the appeal of the Spanish missionaries to the senses of the natives. The earnest faces of the American soldiers in their brown fatigue uniforms, the solemn chanting of the priest, the strong, clear tones of the native laids of whom Father McKinnon was a most touching sermon was preached by the Rev. Father McKinnon, chaplain of the regiment.

It was a most impressive scene, the quaint old interior reminiscent in all its parts of the appeal of the Spanish missionaries to the senses of the natives. The earnest faces of the American soldiers in their brown fatigue uniforms, the solemn chanting of the priest, the strong, clear tones of the native laids of whom Father McKinnon was a most touching sermon was preached by the Rev. Father McKinnon, chaplain of the regiment.

It was a most impressive scene, the quaint old interior reminiscent in all its parts of the appeal of the Spanish missionaries to the senses of the natives. The earnest faces of the American soldiers in their brown fatigue uniforms, the solemn chanting of the priest, the strong, clear tones of the native laids of whom Father McKinnon was a most touching sermon was preached by the Rev. Father McKinnon, chaplain of the regiment.

It was a most impressive scene, the quaint old interior reminiscent in all its parts of the appeal of the Spanish missionaries to the senses of the natives. The earnest faces of the American soldiers in their brown fatigue uniforms, the solemn chanting of the priest, the strong, clear tones of the native laids of whom Father McKinnon was a most touching sermon was preached by the Rev. Father McKinnon, chaplain of the regiment.

It was a most impressive scene, the quaint old interior reminiscent in all its parts of the appeal of the Spanish missionaries to the senses of the natives. The earnest faces of the American soldiers in their brown fatigue uniforms, the solemn chanting of the priest, the strong, clear tones of the native laids of whom Father McKinnon was a most touching sermon was preached by the Rev. Father McKinnon, chaplain of the regiment.

It was a most impressive scene, the quaint old interior reminiscent in all its parts of the appeal of the Spanish missionaries to the senses of the natives. The earnest faces of the American soldiers in their brown fatigue uniforms, the solemn chanting of the priest, the strong, clear tones of the native laids of whom Father McKinnon was a most touching sermon was preached by the Rev. Father McKinnon, chaplain of the regiment.

It was a most impressive scene, the quaint old interior reminiscent in all its parts of the appeal of the Spanish missionaries to the senses of the natives. The earnest faces of the American soldiers in their brown fatigue uniforms, the solemn chanting of the priest, the strong, clear tones of the native laids of whom Father McKinnon was a most touching sermon was preached by the Rev. Father McKinnon, chaplain of the regiment.

It was a most impressive scene, the quaint old interior reminiscent in all its parts of the appeal of the Spanish missionaries to the senses of the natives. The earnest faces of the American soldiers in their brown fatigue uniforms, the solemn chanting of the priest, the strong, clear tones of the native laids of whom Father McKinnon was a most touching sermon was preached by the Rev. Father McKinnon, chaplain of the regiment.

It was a most impressive scene, the quaint old interior reminiscent in all its parts of the appeal of the Spanish missionaries to the senses of the natives. The earnest faces of the American soldiers in their brown fatigue uniforms, the solemn chanting of the priest, the strong, clear tones of the native laids of whom Father McKinnon was a most touching sermon was preached by the Rev. Father McKinnon, chaplain of the regiment.

It was a most impressive scene, the quaint old interior reminiscent in all its parts of the appeal of the Spanish missionaries to the senses of the natives. The earnest faces of the American soldiers in their brown fatigue uniforms, the solemn chanting of the priest, the strong, clear tones of the native laids of whom Father McKinnon was a most touching sermon was preached by the Rev. Father McKinnon, chaplain of the regiment.

It was a most impressive scene, the quaint old interior reminiscent in all its parts of the appeal of the Spanish missionaries to the senses of the natives. The earnest faces of the American soldiers in their brown fatigue uniforms,